

Kayla at the 2010 Children's Festival

Kayla Bowker

Miss Rogue Valley 2011

Kayla Bowker was born and raised in Klamath Falls, Oregon graduating from Henley High School in 2008. She is currently attending the University of Oregon working to obtain her Bachelor of Arts in Family and Human Services with a minor in Non-Profit Administration and Business. Eventually Kayla aspires to work as a social worker and therapist at a Children's Hospital. She is the Up 'Til Dawn Executive Director, UO Dance Marathon Co-Director of Families and also the Founder of UO Invisible Children Club. She is a Founding Sorority sister of Theta Delta Chapter of Delta Delta Delta at the University of Oregon and serves as their Co-Philanthropy Chair.

Kayla is an avid football fan, following her Ducks throughout the season, attending every home game, the Rose Bowl and the BCS

Championship. She currently volunteers with the Candlelighters of Oregon, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, and is an intern at Sheldon High School in the counseling department.

Kayla has been involved in the Miss America Organization since she was 5 years old, beginning as a little sister and has held 5 local titles including Klamath County's Outstanding Teen 2006 and Miss City of Sunshine 2008, Miss Southern Oregon 2010, and her most recent achievement as the current Miss Rogue Valley 2011. Kayla has already made numerous appearances throughout the state, networking and promoting the Miss America Organization, Children's Miracle Network Hospitals and her personal platform of Childhood Cancer. It is her wish to continue Danny Thomas' legacy that "No child should die in the dawn of life".